

Hi friends, we're a week into the Fringe run now, with the next show is at 5pm today...

Somehow during Pulse recently, the head and the heart are on the same page, or at least closer... Such a subtle thing acting and performing. When everyone I'm hanging out with in this show is a figment of my imagination, I can feel that it really works when I'm properly present - in the situation - it's a great test of presence. I'm also loving playing viola, both folk and classical.

Additional positives: producer Kate's foot seems better and her wee boy Toby is a pal. Maria, technician, has been playing a blinder, and Christine Sparks and John Sparks came with glorious offspring. Thanks all!

Tickets still available for all shows. Competition ferocious. It's easy to think that everyone else'll be going... it's not like that! Please activate your curiosity if you haven't already! And thanks to everyone who has made it so far.

We've also made pick of the Scotsman, Mervyn Stutter's Pick of the Fringe and Music Theatre's top 10 show for 2017! Please spread the word of this 5-star show!!!

Jazz bar gigs

Also as part of the Fringe, I played an acoustic music concert on 4 Aug at the Jazz

Said she'd wanted to sing it since she was 14 but hadn't until last night. Her delivery, intonation and connection was wonderful. Piano player was Brian Kellock - what a musician! There's a wee vid below of them plus her hubby Ronny Rae on bass.

I'm also at the Jazz Bar on 28 Aug. I hope you can make it!
