Hi friends,

I'm really happy to announce that I'm doing 13 shows of Pulse at Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017, this time at the Scottish Storytelling Centre. I love doing the show and I can't wait to be part of the Fringe again, it's such a buzz.

The Storytelling Centre is right in the heart of Edinburgh, on the Royal Mile. Dave works there, as does Maria, the tech for Pulse, so we'll be right at home!

The show details are:

Thu 3 – Sun 27 Aug (not even days) at 5pm, Scottish Storytelling

Here's what the critics say about the show:

‘Mesmerising... an exhilarating blend of music, movement and animation’ (Scotsman).

‘Subtle, beautiful, evocative’ (FringeReview.co.uk).

‘Bare, unabashed honesty... you'll feel transformed’ (ThreeWeeks).

Pulse is co-devised and directed by Kath Burlinson.

Tickets went on sale this week and can be bought here.

I'm also doing acoustic music concerts on 4 and 28 Aug at the Jazz Bar, a great wee venue right in the heart of the city. I hope you can make it.

Taproot Festival on Lismore

Thursday 14th – Sunday 17 September, Isle of Lismore

Featuring Mairi Campbell: Pulse, Liz Lohead, Norman Bissell, Donald Meek, Cera Impala, the Clincarts and more.

It's going to be a brilliant weekend. Limited tickets still available at the Lismore Heritage Centre on 01631760030. This is a fundraising festival for the Heritage Centre. Tickets £75. Bring a tent or book a bed.

Below is a gorgeous image that Tamsin Haggis has made that she calls Taproot. It is inspired by Lismore and all the artistic digging we've done and that the land supports.

Musings

I'm just back from taking myself off to glorious Germany. Apart from locking myself into my own van, getting a parking ticket, and having the car towed away in Berlin, I thought I did OK! I really enjoyed the gigs, staying with friends and seeing a lot of the land. Thank you all who came to the gigs and supported me – much appreciated and looking forward to next April when I'll be back.
